President's Threads That Bind

Well, we have had a real taste of Fall in Michigan today and there are even some trees turning colors. I know Texas will still be hot when I get home.

I had the opportunity to go to the AQS show in Grand Rapids, Michigan in August. I had a friend who had never been to a quilt show before attend with me and it was fun to see her reaction to everything. She was amazed at so many of the quilts. The quilts were beautiful, but I have to say the quality of the quilts in our show is comparable. We have so many talented quilters in our guild. I even managed to not buy any fabric; however, I did buy a few other things. I handed out our show information to some prospective vendors.

Well, keep stitching.

If you are a new or returning Guild Member, be sure to look up the Guild Facebook Group, Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild and request to join, if you haven't already.

This Group is a great way to stay connected with other Guild Members and up-to-date on Guild activities.

Also check out the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Show page, on Facebook, for ongoing updates on the Quilt Show.

NEW MEETING LOCATION !!!

Thanks to the efforts of Maria Anita Pineda & Josie McVey, the Guild has arranged for new meeting locations for upcoming in-person monthly meetings. The November 12, 2022, January 14, 2023, & February 4, 2023 meetings will be held in the auditorium and meeting room of the Mayor Eugene A Braught Memorial Theatre, which is adjacent to the City of Weslaco Public Library, located at 525 South Kansas Avenue in Weslaco. The Guild's Friendship Day meeting on December 10, 2022 & the Rummage Sale meeting on March 11, 2023, will be conducted in the gymnasium of the City of Mercedes Dome Recreation Center, located at 202 N Vermont Ave.

The Weslaco Library is one block east of Texas Blvd & three blocks south of Business 83. The Dome is approximately three blocks north of the Interstate on Vermont in Mercedes.

Schoolhouse Classes

by Debbie Williams

Schoolhouse classes will be taking place the first Saturday of most months this winter at the Pharr South Activity Center. The classes will start at 9:00am and end at 3:00pm. You may bring a lunch, or go out for lunch. The fee for members is $20 per class. For non-members, an additional $30 is charged for the membership fee.

On November 5th, we will start off with an 18x18" Woven Panel class facilitated by Debbie

Williams. There are detailed instructions on what to bring for the class...and what to prepare ahead of class so that you will be ready to begin weaving at the start of the class. No sewing machine is required for this class, but you will need a machine to finish off your project at home. Debbie is providing your board, prepped with the weaving diagram, as well as instructions for completing a table topper or decor pillow with your completed panel.

Some seats are still available...so be sure to sign up online soon if you are interested.

On December 3rd, Nancy Schmitz will be leading the Schoolhouse class for her Paper Pieced Table Runner. Nancy will be providing the foundation paper for the paper pieced blocks as well as all instructions needed for completing this attractive table runner. The material list provides material needed for a 3 panel table runner, but you can easily add more blocks if you prefer a longer runner. Nancy is encouraging attendees to consider doing the runner in holiday colors...and you might even want to make several for gifts!

Seats are still available....but you won't want to wait too long to sign up for this class online.

On January 7th, Paula McCutchen is going to be sharing her talents at making an amazing Cork

Wallet. She has adapted her wallet pattern to have more generous pockets for credit cards. In the material list she allows various weights of cork fabric. But she will be bringing a stabilizer to use if your cork is a fairly light weight. Paula will help you determine if that is necessary.

Seats are still available, but I anticipate this to be a popular class. So don't hesitate too long to sign up online

Military Service Quilts

. by Lucy Klaas

Evelyn Fincher has accepted a position on my committee for the following year. If anyone needs a quilt during the summer, please contact Kathy Dunning at Alamo Country Club.

Hopefully, several of the summer scrap blocks will be made and donated. From the Block a Day calendar, they are Goose Creek, June 11th; July 4th on July 4th; Milky Way on July 19th and Double Tic Tac Toe, June 8th. Can be made as shown as 8" block or upsized to 12". Continue using red, white or beige, and blue

RGV Quilt Show

Co-chairs Laural Powell and Debi Warner

2023 Show "Under the Sea"

February 10-11,
2023

At the August meeting, the Quilt Show Board voted to have ballot voting at the quilt show end at the end of the day on Friday. This way the Ballots & Ribbons Committee can hang the ribbons before the quilt show opens on Saturday morning. So you will be able to vote for your favorites on Friday, then coming in on Saturday and see which quilts received ribbons. Additionally if one of your entries received a ribbon, you can have your picture taken with the quilt and ribbon while it is still hanging at the quilt show.

Ask Oggie

If you have a question about the Quilt Show you can send an email to Ask Oggie at quiltshow@rgvqg.com.

This month, Oggie got two questions about the 2023 Quilt Show.

Ann asked: When will we be able to register quilts for the quilt show?

Answer: On-line registration is open now on the Guild website at rgvqg.com.

<https://form.jotform.com/rgvquiltguild/2023-rgv-qs-quilt-registration>

Jane asked: Will we be able to have quilts appraised at the next quilt show?

Answer: Yes, Allison Rainboth will be back at the 2023 Quilt Show to do quilt appraisals. If you have a quilt you would like appraised you can register on-line at rgvqg.com.

Programs

By Jan Rondeau

Our September program was a time spent sharing our most recent quilting related talent/ product. Quilting is an ever evolving experience that allows us to learn from each other.

Our October program will be Panel Palooza. Cyndi McChesney, of Bella Vista, AR, will take us on a journey working with different styles of panels, where to find design ideas, and how to make the most of the panels you love.

In November we will be joined by Mary Mayfield from the Tanzanian Angel Project. Mary will have a trunk show of hand dyed batiks, showing the process and the people whose lives are changed by the Project. Mary will also be teaching a class making one of a kind angel blocks that can be turned into table runners or wall hangings, using the hand dyed batiks. The class will use pre-cut kits and offer unique finished products. You won't want to miss this.

The website has been updated with the upcoming programs. It will continue to be updated as additional information is available.

QUILT SHOW - SILENT AUCTION

by Debbie Williams

We will be doing the Silent Auction again for the 2023 Quilt Show on the island. Last year we were very successful auctioning off handmade items and relevant services. Best sellers from last year:

- * 4 rounds of golf
- * hand made quilt - throw size
- * cherry swing arm quilt rack
- * Poppins bag
- * landscape painting

I need your help. Please reach out to those you know that have talents that are willing to share. I'd love to have a stain glass piece, original artwork, wooden items, especially items that would be of interest to quilters. If you have an idea you'd like to discuss, please reach out to me. My contact information is 479-899-3072 or debrichwill@gmail.com.

Bee News

Queen City Bees Buzzzzzz

By Anita Pineda

A new Bee colony has been built within the RGVQ Guild! We are the Queen City Bees building our hive within the Mid-Valley area. We are starting out with 10 members. Some of us are already Guild members and introducing nonmembers to the Guild and encouraging them to join the Guild. Most new members are beginning sewers and quilters. Our first meeting took place on August 21, 2022, with a full agenda. We discussed and decided on our bee name and meeting date(s) and times. Member information sheets were passed out and filled out by members. The Guild members, knowing the Guild upcoming events, introduced, and discussed two main Guild issues: 1) the monthly Guild meeting place/location and 2) Friendship Day. It was voted to assist the Guild in acquiring a meeting place and volunteer to organize Friendship Day if the Guild Board accepts our assistance. Queen Bee Anita and Chair Bee Josie were instructed to contact the Guild with the offer on finding a monthly person to person meeting place and organizing Friendship Day. The Guild Board did accept the Queen City Bees site suggestion(s) for both events and are now working on the final or fine details on acquiring/securing the suggested sites. Show & Tell took place with each member introducing themselves and showing their wares. Gabby showed quilts made from blocks family members donated to the Cornea Transplant Foundation. She requested for the Guild members to inquire about displaying these "memorial" quilts at the quilt show. The request will be made to the Quilt Show Chairperson. Some of the Bees suggested that maybe the Guild would be interested in a Cornea transplant presentation as a program during one of the meetings. The suggestion will be given to the Guild. Other Bees "showed" their creations to the rest of the colony.

The Wanna Bees meet every second and fourth Sunday of the month. The contact person is Adela H. Saldana and can be reached at 956-975-9349 or email at adelahsaldana@hotmail.com.

This Bee meets at various places and is a closed Bee.

CALLING ALL BEES- September is here and it is time to consider participating in the Imagination Station at the Quilt Show! Have your BEE demonstrate a project, then provide kits for the attendees to purchase and make at home. REMEMBER YOUR BEE will keep all money. So this is a great opportunity for your bee to meet others and at the same time help your bee get some extra cash.

So far we have:

Killer Bees- turtle mops

Pharr Bee it- magic open boxes

Honey Bees- Chenille hot pads

Contact Paula McCutchan to register your bee, 317-874-8963

paulamccutchan442@msn.com

Row Quilters at Alamo Country Club meet on Fridays from 9 am to 2 pm in the View Room at Alamo Country Club and welcome everyone.

The group is smaller during the Summer, but we still have a great time. Some of the ladies have been working on their projects. Others have been binding Military Service quilts and making tops also.

Scrap Block Draw

by Chris Cowan

For October we'll continue to make blocks for Military Service quilts. It's Double Tic Tac Toe, June 8th on the Block a Day Calendar, red, white or beige and blue as shown. You can make them 8" as shown or upsize to 12" like my sample.

Hopefully at the November meeting we will get many blocks from the July - October patterns: Goose Creek, June 11th; July 4th on July 4th ; Milky Way, July 19th and Double Tic Tac Toe, June 8th

Do You Want to Judge Quilts?-

Dear Rio Grande Valley Quilters,

I have attached information describing the Two-Day Introduction to Quilt Judging Seminar that I will be co-teaching with Pat Harrison October 10-11, 2022 in Missouri City, TX. Would you kindly share this information with members that might be interested in our seminar?

These seminars occur a few times per year in a variety of locations across the country, as demand requires. There are currently 51 NACQJ certified judges. Given that there are far more shows per year than the number of judges, we would like to interest more quilters in becoming judges! Seminars can be requested from any of the seven qualified instructors. We are always looking for additional venues. You might like to take a look at our website at

Judging Seminars \(nacqj.com\)

RGVQG General Meeting Minutes

RGVQG General Meeting

September 10, 2022

There were 40 members present establishing a quorum.

Marsha Santow called the meeting to order at 9:03 am.

Marsha turned the meeting over to the program chair, Jan Rondeau, for her presentation on Tips and Hints for us quilters. Several members had some very good hints. Our speaker next month is Cyndi McChesney. She will be presenting a program on panel quilting. November will be The Tanzanian Angel Project by Mary Mayfield, December will be Friendship Day, January will be by Randi York, no program in February because of the quilt show, which is one week earlier, March will be the garage sale, and April will be Suzi Parron telling us about barn quilts.

Mike Hall introduced the two guild members who have volunteered to chair our Friendship Day, Maria Anita Pineda and Josie McVey. They have found us a more central location for our guild to meet during the winter season! We will be meeting at the Weslaco Library. We cannot have Friendship Day or our Garage Sale Day at this location, so they found us a place to hold these two events at also. These will be held at the Dome in Mercedes. Schoolhouse classes will be at Pharr South. Jan stated that she needs a place for her November Program Class. If anyone has any ideas please let Jan Rondeau know.

Treasurer's report was put on file for audit.

Secretary's report will be filed as printed.

Committee Reports:

Quilt Show Chair Laural Powell - she has the hotels lined up and will be posting them on our quilt show Facebook page and on our website. She has gotten several vendors lined up and is hoping for more as the date gets closer. The forms are on our website to register quilts for the show and to volunteer to work. The volunteer list will also be available at our meetings starting in November.

There are no other committee reports.

Marjorie Wold, Josie McVey, Fran Wessels, Marjorie Lehman, and Maria Anita Pineda won door prizes.

Mike Hall told us about the Block of the Month. Use the block featured on June 8th, make it red, white, and blue because they will be used for military service quilts.

Mike Hall presented items for Show and Tell. Judy Blum had several small quilts to share. She stated that these are items made for charity.

Marsha Santow mentioned a planning session with the Port Isabel Chamber of Commerce coming up on October 18th. She is planning to attend, and she says the session is open to anyone in the guild and we are a member of the Chamber. She will be giving us updates on when and where it will be. Meeting was adjourned at 10:02 am.

Secretary,
Lila Helm
