PRESIDENTS THREADS THAT BIND

I would personally like to thank Judy Brown for giving me the opportunity to do the August Program for the Guild. I had so much fun constructing the blocks and configuring them into 6 different quilt tops. I would also like to thank all those who attended the August Meeting and being so attentive. Although only 12 blocks were shown for each of the 5 quilt tops and 36 blocks for the 6th quilt top in military service fabric, many more blocks were made per quilt top and all will be donated to Military Service.

WE ARE MOVING LOCATIONS!!! Beginning with the September Guild Meeting, The Guild Meetings will be held at Trophy Gardens RV Park, 800 State Highway 495, Alamo, Texas. The RV Park is located between Alamo Road and Tower Road North of I-2. QUILT SHOW

Everything is moving along in preparation for next years show. I still have two jobs that need to be filled, demo chair and boutique chair. Also if you have a little time, we need to start collecting items for the boutique. I will start bringing a basket to our guild meetings and you can deposit items in it. Please price the items if possible because we don't know how much you have in them. Thank all of you in advance.

Why we do what we do. Purpose of the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild

(a corporation) is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code.

From the original documents organizing the Guild.

$33, 250.00 is what it takes to run the Guild for a year. There is fixed overhead of $13,000 for things like insurance, bonds, rent for meetings, scholarships and a few other things. Then there are line items of $13,150.00 which can vary in cost, such as Schoolhouse and program speakers. There are a few other items which add up quickly. We all enjoy the experiences and knowledge we receive from the Guild.

However, it is literally you get out what you put in. We are a self-funded organization. We can only receive what we contribute in time, money and effort.

Nominating Committee

Remember that elections for President, Secretary and 3rd VP/Programs will be at the November meeting. We do have multiple candidates for President so will be having a paper ballot as well as online voting for those who use a computer. We are still in need of nominations for the other two positions.

Please strongly consider them yourself or talk with someone else that you think would be good. Nominations will be announced at the October meeting.

If you are interested, or know of someone who would be interested, please contact Pam Manley or Judy Brown. Thank you.

RUMMAGE SALE 2019

Are you running out of room in your sewing room? Are you tired of looking at the same fabric, but need to get rid of it to make room for new? Have you cut back on scrapbooking, knitting, crocheting or crafting? Then it's time to "destash" and your opportunity is at the October 12th Guild meeting.

30 tables are available and are free.

Don't have enough stuff for a whole table, don't hesitate to let me know if you only need half a table and I'll pair you up with someone who also only needs a half table.

Be sure to price your items, it will make your transactions go smoother.

Please contact me by email at karonj69@gmail.com and give me your name, phone number, and how many tables you need and I'll reserve your table(s). Remember, first come first serve so book early and guarantee your place at the Rummage Sale. So, start packing up your sewing and crafting items that you want to get rid of.

AN OPPORTUNITY!

The Guild has been contacted by The Socorro Foundation. They have opened transitional shelter in Hildago. They are providing families with a newborn, infant or small children. They stay for 3-5 days, before traveling to meet their sponsor family and await their asylum hearing. The program is called Patchwork and Pillowcases Drive, it aims to provide a quilt for each bassinette at the shelter, and a pillowcases for every child that is theirs to keep. The shelter serves 100 people every three to five days. They need lots of pillowcases!

If you would like to help this organization you can go to their website <https://www.thesocorrofoundation.org> Or you can call me at 956-581-6588

Opportunity Quilt Show Ticket Sales

Ladies and gentlemen I am so excited to be a part of the Opportunity Quilt Show committee. We are doing so well with ticket sales and I am so enthused about the excitement we have about the items made for the drawing this year.

Thank you so much to those of you who have picked up your tickets and those who have already returned them. Please pick up your books by contacting me at the Saturday meeting or by email/phone and I can get them to you. Remember that for every book you sell you will get a ticket to enter the drawing to win one of the two $150 gift cards from our local quilt shops. You will also receive a free quilt show pin for your participation.

We are already receiving requests to set up at craft shows. Please let me know of any craft shows/jams/activities at your parks that we can set up at and sell tickets.

Those who have not picked them up remember that as a member it is requested that you sell at least 4 books/$20 worth of tickets. They sell 6 for $5 or $1 a piece. It only takes 1 ticket to win.

This really helps all of us continue with the Quilt show, the wonderful speakers/teachers we have and the space we rent for the meetings.

I appreciate all of you and the wonderful guild we have that keeps all of our activities going.

Pictured above is the Quilt which is 108x108, the stained glass piece, and the quilted tote that are part of the drawing.

Special thanks to:

Carla Mewhinney, Sue Arnold, Nancy Flaherty, Lila Helm and Mr. Helm, Karen Eck and Renee Darkis for the beautiful items for the Opportunity drawing.

Have a blessed day,

Sarah Reed Opportunityquilt@rgvqg.org

Program News

A reminder that September is Friendship Day and October is our Rummage Sale.

Registration and details for Cynthia England's visit in November are on the website ready for your registrations. We will have samples available for you to see at the September and October meetings. We are very lucky to have Cynthia come to our Guild this November as she is extremely in demand. One of her quilts, "Piece and Quiet" was distinguished as one of "The Twentieth Century's Best Quilts" plus she has received many awards for her work; including three Best of Show awards at the prestigious International Quilt Festival. Her quilt "Show Time" pictured here is featured as the cover on the new book "Magic and Memories: 45 Years of International Quilt Festival" being introduced at the upcoming Houston Quilt Festival by Teresa Duryea Wong (our Quilt Show lecturer).

Tina Hilton from Turtle Hand will present our December program. We will have a sample of that as well in October. She just posted a picture of her booth at the current AQS show and will be bringing a "pop up store" to our meeting. We will also have another big surprise in December so be sure to mark the dates on your calendars.

Dear Sister Quilt Guilds;

The Smithville Stitchers will be having its Airing of the Quilts quilt show on Saturday, November 9th 2019 at the Church of Christ in Smithville

This year we are proud to announce that we have Edie McGinnis coming to do our bed turning. Edie has worked for the Kansas City Star and for the Missouri Star Quilt Company. For our bed turning she will be showing the Kansas City Star Quilts. The bed turnings are at 11:00 AM and 2:00 PM. Seating is limited.

If that isn't exciting enough, we also have the Robert Kaufman color of the year "Splash" Kona Quilts. This is the first time and may be the only time these will be shown in Texas.

The Airing of the Quilts event on Saturday is free to the public, but to add to the temptation, on Monday November 11th Edie will be giving a lecture and trunk show on her book "Finders Keepers". These are the quilts that were found in an abandoned farm house and taken to Edie to evaluate. The trunk show is the copies she made.

This lecture and trunk show will have very limited seating. We are offering tickets at $10.00 per person to our sister guilds. Members of your guild should email us at ssaoq@yahoo.com to reserve a place. E-mail timestamps will be used to determine availability of seating. Checks should be mailed to us within 7 days to guarantee a seat. Mail checks to:

Re: Youth Sewing Classes

Sewing is an important Life Skill and is the vehicle to teach self-confidence through skill building.

In the month of July we held two sewing beginners classes. The participants learned about sewing safety, sewing tools, and parts of a sewing machine.

These participants never sewn before, much less used a sewing machine. With the assistance of MCVs we taught 16 individuals how to sew a basic stitch. They began by practicing through paper sewing sheets and moved to a draw string sewing project. In their second class they learned how to make a “hot dog pillow.”

During the next months, the kids will continue on their quilts for the annual Quilt Show.

Educational programs of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service are open to all people without regard to race, color, sex, disability, religion, age, or national origin. The Texas A&M University System, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and the County Commissioners Courts of Texas Cooperating. Individuals with a disability needing an accommodation should contact 956-383-1026 at least two weeks in advance to program date

Tickets will be sold for $1 each or 6 for $5 and can be purchased from members of Chisholm Trail Quilt Guild or at the show. The raffle drawing will be held at 4PM Saturday, at the quilt show. Winner need not be present to win.

It took four quilters (Gloria Hale, Sharon Frederick, Doris Jablonski and Jean McCoy) almost 2 years to hand applique and piece. The beautiful quilting is by Cat Marion.
