President's Threads That Bind

I hope summer is going well for everyone. It is finally cooling down this week. I am looking forward to going to the Grand Rapids Quilt Show this week. I have saved up for it. We are going to have a strategic planning meeting with Dianna Harvill of the Chamber of Commerce on South Padre in October. The date is October 18 and will be held in Port Isabel at the Methodist church. Anyone in the guild is welcome to attend. Put it on your calendar.

Keep stitching

Sunshine and Shadows

by Kathe Letulle

Two Sympathy cards were sent out this month. If you know of any Guild Member that needs a Sunshine card or a Sympathy card, please email name and address to:
sunshine@rgvqg.com

We have found a location to conduct this fall's in-person General Meetings. The McAllen Public Library's auditorium and adjoining meeting rooms have been reserved for the specific dates we need to conduct the Saturday meetings for the months of November 2022 – March 2023.

NEGATIVES

- This location is in McAllen which makes it a little inconvenient for our lower-Valley members.
- Any refreshments for Friendship Day must be provided by the Library Caterer.
- Library does NOT open until 9:00 AM and our reservation is until 1:00PM.

POSITIVES

- We have a meeting location reserved.
- Reservations are fully-refundable if we cancel.
- $644.00 savings from the former contract.
- No set-up will be required by the guild except for the placement of the rummage sale tables.
- Audio-visual equipment fully provided by the library. (We will need a lap-top & camera for ZOOM).
- No contract, so we can hunt for a more convenient location.

But DON'T STOP LOOKING for a more convenient location in the mid-valley area. We are currently negotiating with the Weslaco Public Library for the potential use of their facilities. If anyone knows of a church organization with a Fellowship Hall available for rent or any other potential solution for our meeting location, please leave a message at info@rgvqg.com.

Schoolhouse Classes

by Debbie Williams

Schoolhouse classes will be taking place the first Saturday of most months this winter at the Pharr South Activity Center. The classes will start at 9:00am and end at 3:00pm. You may bring a lunch, or go out for lunch. The fee for members is $20 per class. For non-members, an additional $30 is charged for the membership fee.

On November 5th, we will start off with an 18x18" Woven Panel class facilitated by Debbie

Williams. There are detailed instructions on what to bring for the class...and what to prepare ahead of class so that you will be ready to begin weaving at the start of the class. No sewing machine is required for this class, but you will need a machine to finish off your project at home. Debbie is providing your board, prepped with the weaving diagram, as well as instructions for completing a table topper or decor pillow with your completed panel.

Some seats are still available...so be sure to sign up online soon if you are interested.

On December 3rd, Nancy Schmidt will be leading the Schoolhouse class for her Paper Pieced Table Runner. Nancy will be providing the foundation paper for the paper pieced blocks as well as all instructions needed for completing this attractive table runner. The material list provides material needed for a 3 panel table runner, but you can easily add more blocks if you prefer a longer runner. Nancy is encouraging attendees to consider doing the runner in holiday colors...and you might even want to make several for gifts!

Seats are still available....but you won't want to wait too long to sign up for this class online.

On January 7th, Paula McCutchen is going to be sharing her talents at making an amazing Cork Wallet. She has adapted her wallet pattern to have more generous pockets for credit cards. In the material list she allows various weights of cork fabric. But she will be bringing a stabilizer to use if your cork is a fairly light weight. Paula will help you determine if that is necessary. Seats are still available, but I anticipate this to be a popular class. So don't hesitate too long to sign up online

RGV Quilt Show

Co-chairs Loral Powell and Debi Warner

2023 Show "Under the Sea"

February 10-11,
2023

At the August meeting, the Quilt Show Board voted to have ballot voting at the quilt show end at the end of the day on Friday. This way the Ballots & Ribbons Committee can hang the ribbons before the quilt show opens on Saturday morning.

So you will be able to vote for your favorites on Friday, then coming in on Saturday and see which quilts received ribbons. Additionally if one of your entries received a ribbon, you can have your picture take with the quilt and ribbon while it is still hanging at the quilt show.

Ask Oggie

If you have a question about the Quilt Show you can send an email to Ask Oggie at quiltshow@rgvqg.com.

This month, Oggie got two questions about the 2023 Quilt Show.

Ann asked: When will we be able to register quilts for the quilt show?

Answer: On-line registration is open now on the Guild website at rgvqg.com.

<https://form.jotform.com/rgvquiltguild/2023-rgv-qs-quilt-registration>

Jane asked: Will we be able to have quilts appraised at the next quilt show?

Answer: Yes, Allison Rainboth will be back at the 2023 Quilt Show to do quilt appraisals. If you have a quilt you would like appraised you can register on-line at rgvqg.com.

Programs

By Jan Rondeau

In response to questions, Kathe Letulle has requested we publish that the Mondo bag pattern includes instructions and fusible panels. Additional fusible panels can be purchased separately.

Our September program will be a time spent sharing our most recent quilting related talent/ product. Quilting is an ever evolving experience that allows us to learn from each other. Please be prepared to share something you learned or discovered in the past year. This can include new tools or procedures. Often something that we have always done is an "aha" moment for others.

The website has been updated with the upcoming programs. It will be updated as additional information is available.

Scrap Block Draw

For September we'll continue to make blocks for Military Service quilts. It's Milky Way, July 19th on the Block a Day Calendar, red, white and blue instead of the teal shown. You can make them 8" as shown or upsize to 12".

The Wanna Bees Buzz By Anita Pineda

July and August have been busssssy months for the Wanna Bees! In July we took flight to Kerrville and Fredericksburg! Friday morning, seven out of nine Wanna Bees swarmed at 7:00 a.m and by 7:30 we were in flight! But before we let, Josie gave us a bag for our shop limit! LOL, the challenge was to shop the amount the bag could hold! We first landed in San Antonio for lunch at Los Laureles restaurant owned by a Valleyite, Romeo Garza from Mercedes. He asked to display Anita Pineda's, "There's No Place Like Home" quilt in his restaurant. It will be on display for a couple of months. Next stop was Creations fabric shop in Kerrville. We enjoyed the sight of many fabrics and of course we shopped till we dropped! We then flew around Kerrville and landed at Hometown Crafts and Hobby Lobby before flying to the Empty Cross. Completing our pilgrimage, we travelled to Fredericksburg where we settled in for the night. Saturday morning, we enjoyed the town's shops, but most of all the Things in a Room fabric store, a two-story building full of quilts! We had lunch at a cute sandwich place where we enjoyed a live band play our favorite music, Oldies and country. At Willie Nelson's shop, we auditioned with our buzzing/quilting talents for the fun of it! We ended the day at the One Quilt Place fabric shop. This was our last sting of the day and retired to an Italian restaurant for dinner. Completed the day with a last run to HEB for snacks. Just before settling in for the night, we swarmed together to have a show & tell of our purchases! All of us exceeded our bag limit. LOL!!! Sunday morning we traveled back to San Antonio for some thrift shopping. We found some items for either ourselves or for quilting. We landed in the Valley around five in the afternoon as we had a bride whose husband was waiting on her, otherwise we would have returned home at midnight.

August first weekend was the end of the Wanna Bees Swarming retreats for both Guild members and our own Bees. On behalf of the Wanna Bees, we want to thank the Guild members who attended our very first Swarm Retreat! We are grateful for making the Wanna Bees Swarm a success. As the Queen Bee for the Wanna Bees, a great Big BUZZ to Josie, as the Chair-Bee for the Swarms, and participating members for assisting in a successful Swarming.

On a personal note, this is my last Wanna Bees Buzz newsletter. Founder Queen Bee Adela will be regaining her reigning status of the Wanna Bees hive. It was a privilege to reign and oversee the Wanna Bees hive in her absence. WELCOME BACK Adela!

Do You Want to Judge Quilts?-

Dear Rio Grande Valley Quilters,

I have attached information describing the Two-Day Introduction to Quilt Judging Seminar that I will be co-teaching with Pat Harrison October 10-11, 2022 in Missouri City, TX. Would you kindly share this information with members that might be interested in our seminar?

These seminars occur a few times per year in a variety of locations across the country, as demand requires. There are currently 51 NACQJ certified judges. Given that there are far more shows per year than the number of judges, we would like to interest more quilters in becoming judges! Seminars can be requested from any of the seven qualified instructors. We are always looking for additional venues. You might like to take a look at our website at

Judging Seminars \(nacqj.com\)

Thank you!

RGVQG General Meeting

Minutes

Aug 13, 2022

There were 33 members present, so a quorum was established.

The meeting was called to order by President Marsha Santow at 9:00 am who turned the meeting over to the Program Chair, Jan Rondeau. She introduced Kathe Letulle who presented the Mondo, Midi and Mini bags with tips and tricks about how to make them. The pattern which includes fusible pattern pieces and extensive instructions is published by Quiltsmart. Kathe will teach the class to other groups and would appreciate only a donation for the cost of gasoline, the teaching is free.

Mike Hall, Treasurer, presented his reports.

There were no questions so it will be filed for audit and printed in the next newsletter.

The Secretary's minutes of the last General meeting was accepted with no changes as printed in the last newsletter.

Newsletter articles are due this coming Monday, as usual.

Debbie Williams, Schoolhouse chair, presented the upcoming classes. The November, December and January programs are available for sign up on the RGVQG website now. Classes will be held in the sewing room at Pharr South RV Park from 9 am until 3 pm. The cost per class remains $20.00 for members. November will be a woven panel project, approximately 18 inches square taught by Debbie Williams. She will supply the boards for the class. December will be a table runner composed of 3 blocks, two of which are paper pieced; one is a traditionally pieced block taught by Nancy Schmidt. Nancy will supply the paper piecing foundation for students. The project can be adapted to other uses. January class will be a cork wallet taught by Paula McCutchan. Many members expressed interest when it was presented previously. Cork material is available from several sources. If you purchase a thin cork fabric, Paula will bring some material to make it sturdier. Bonnie Hall will be teaching a zippered project bag for the March Schoolhouse class. Mike Hall told the group that we are no longer able to use Trophy Gardens as a meeting place. He was able to reserve an auditorium and a couple of extra rooms at the McAllen Public Library from November through March at about half of the expense at Trophy Gardens. April is optional. He noted it will be a bit further for members in the lower Valley. There is no contract. We will be able to have Friendship Day and the Quilters Swap there. The library doors do not open until 9 am, and no persons are admitted prior to that time. We may have to adjust the time the Guild meeting commences.

If the Guild can find a more agreeable location, any monies on deposit are fully refundable up until 24 hours prior to the meeting. No mid valley RV parks were available, and no ISD seemed available for meetings. Mike encouraged members to keep looking. An important consideration is to have the ability to present the meeting via Zoom for members who do not attend in person.

Retreat still has 7 openings in Friendship Star and a waiting list has been established for Blue Bonnet. A deposit is required to hold your place, but it can be refunded with sufficient notice. Call Kathe Letulle, Retreat Chair, for more details. Additionally, when A Block Away quilt shop closed, they donated several hundred items to the Guild. A list will be sent to each Guild chair and they will have a week to request items for their committee. The items will be bundled, boxed, labeled and distributed to the chairs by Kathe's volunteers. Those chairs who are not able to get their box early will have their box put into the storage until they are able to retrieve it.

Programs chair Jan Rondeau announced the programs have not yet been settled for September and October. In November, The Tanzanian Angel Project will be shown by Mary Mayfield in person. The group in Tanzania makes unique hand dyed batik fabrics, very different than what is available in most shops. Funds raised by the project are used to support girls there to attend school and learn employable skills. Part of the kit cost supports this effort. The project we will see is a table runner made from these special batik fabrics. The program class will be held the following Monday due to Veterans' Day programs. Registration is available now and is $45 per student. The mandatory kit which includes the special pre-cut high-quality batiks is $40.00. Ms. Mayfield will also be bringing some yardage and bolts of the fabric, although she is limited to what she can bring is two suitcases.

The December Friendship Day program needs a Bee or a group of four to five persons plan and do it. If it's held at the library, we have to purchase food through the library and we have funds for that expense. It's a day to have fun and get to know each other a bit better. Bring your friends. The January program will be by Randi York. She will walk us through how you take a concept, design a quilt and move through the process to completing your unique quilt and entering it for competition. February will have no speaker as we are getting ready for the Quilt Show held the following week. March will be the Quilter's Swap meeting. April's meeting will be presented by Suzi Parron who has written two books about Barn Quilts.

Kathe Letulle is helping with Sunshine and Shadows. We have sent two sympathy cards this last month. We relayed a conversation with Mellie Peach who sounds like she is doing very well on her recovery. Mellie wanted to thank everyone for the card and thoughts.

Chris Cowan announced the newsletter deadline is the following Monday. She will put in a block pattern in the newsletter this coming issue.

Marty Morrison reported the nominating committee has succeeded in finding candidates for open officer positions to be elected in November. Additionally, we need Historian, a Hostess, and Publicity chairs.

Our insurance provider will no longer be underwriting institutional organizations like us and our insurance broker is searching for another company to provide this service, announced Mike Hall. He is confident we will be able to find a company to cover our liability needs before our coverage expires in October.

Door prizes were won by Josie McVey, Linda Osborn and Garnett Weaver.

The meeting was adjourned by Marsha Santow.

Respectfully submitted, Diana Wolf, Acting Secretary
