

President's Threads That Bind

What to do during this summer with hot weather? Maybe time to get some of those UFO's worked on and completed to show at future Guild Meeting Show and Tell? Staying out of the heat and enjoying a cool glass of tea? Hit the shopping malls and stay cool? Whatever your pleasure, please stay safe and hydrated!

It is with sadness in my heart that I must mention another Guild Member that has made their way to heaven. A long-time member, Millie Leonard, has passed away. There is no further information, but I will advise when I am informed. Please keep her family and many friends in your thoughts and prayers.

Many tips and tricks were given at the July Meeting. Keep those in mind because their value is great.

GUILD VOLUNTEER POSITIONS OPEN: For any board committee position, please contact me at president@rgvqg.com. These board committee positions are open - Publicity and Historian. IF you have an interest, check out the Guild By-Laws and Standing Rules for further information of the job responsibilities plus contact the member handling the position currently. Your mentor is there, so you can be productive in this volunteer position. Truly think about taking on an active volunteer position of the Guild. It is a rewarding experience and become a member of the Guild's future.

Take the time to read over the Guild By-Laws and Standing Rules. These are the governances of the Guild.

See everyone at the August 15, 2026 Guild Meeting - REMEMBER a week later that normal.

Blessings to all,
Kathe Letulle - President@rgvqg.com

Military Service Quilts

Rosemary Kramer and Nancy Malmin

Quilt tops can be turned in to Dale Shafer or Diana Wolf. Nothing in or out this month. Keep sewing and stay cool. We look forward to seeing you in November.

Edna Butler is doing much better, but not up to hosting yet. Chris Cowan volunteered to host if a site was arranged. Pharr South, 1402 S Cage graciously stepped up. So come August 8th from 9-3 with your machines ready to go! Brown bag your lunch or step out to a local restaurant. Block kits will be provided or you can work on your own project. Working on maybe getting some of the new donated solid color fabric to make backings and bindings.

Hoping you all take note of the Saturday class in September - especially for those who have week-day jobs. Excellent class for all! Please call me with any questions. Dale Shafer 956-330-5261

This is our tentative schedule for the rest of the year. As you can see, I'm doing several of the classes, but I will be happy to give those up, if someone comes forward with ideas/suggestions for something different. Please note that the September class will be held on a Saturday, especially for those quilters who may have week-day jobs. This will be a very informative class for everyone, but especially for our newer quilters!

Social Media Expansion

by Laural Powell

We have expanded our social media presence!

For some time, the Guild has had a closed Facebook group, as Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild. This means you must answer some questions and then be allowed into this group.

The Guild Board has voted to keep this group to members only. This is to provide a space for our members to post and comment where they will know it will only be seen by Guild members.

The Guild Board also understands some may want to share what our guild is doing with their friends. Then others are introduced to our guild through our quilt show and/or community service efforts and want to know more about our guild. So, we created a Facebook page at Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild Texas. This page can be viewed and followed by anyone interested in our guild.

Additionally, we have reactivated the Guild's Instagram account, which anyone can follow at Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild or @rgvqgtx.

So, now anyone can follow the Guild on our Facebook page and Instagram account, while Guild members can have privacy by joining the Guild's closed Facebook group. If you need help accessing any of these, contact me at joinfb@rgvqg.com.

Informational SMS (text) Messages

Informational SMS (text) Messages
We can send text messages to all our current members. If you are no longer a member of the guild, you will not get any text messages from RGVQG. The text messages will be short messages asking you to check your email for additional information or gentle reminders. You can reply STOP to opt out of any text messages from RGVQG.
Please add +1 833-935-5165 to your contacts as RGVQG. These text messages will be from the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild.

RGVQG Emails Update

We will be changing the way we send emails. We send 2-4 emails every month to all our active members. All of our guild related emails start with RGVQG.
Guild Emails -
The guild webmaster usually sends out at least two emails a month

- RGVQG Newsletter (after the meeting)
- RGVQG Meeting Notice (Thursday before the meeting)

Both emails are sent from rgvquiltguild@rgvqg.com
Please put this email in your contact list. This will help to direct the emails to your inbox instead of sending them to spam or junk.

Friends of the Guild

Now visitors and friends can sign up for more information about the Rio Grande Valley Guild. A link is available on the home page of our website just below the Welcome message. Limited emails will be sent to these individuals.

An initial email will have information on our website, Facebook pages, and how to become a member. An email will be sent just prior to the Quilt Show as a reminder. Possibly an additional one as needed.

Do you know someone or want to share this link with them?

Scrap Block Draw

by Chris Cowan

In our previous program a block would be selected each month, size and colors specified. For each block submitted at the next meeting the maker received a chance to win them all. If the blocks were returned as a complete project quilted and bound by the next meeting, a $20 gift certificate towards any upcoming guild class was awarded.

I would like to revive it but have the blocks be made to be used in community service or military service quilts. I always enjoyed trying a new block and color combinations I might not have tried otherwise.

My question is, does it still need to be incentivized or is getting a chance to use our scrap stash reward enough?

Two ideas suggested: one, to continue with a selected block, size and colors and two, being given a specified size and a required fabric to be used in the block of maker's choice.

Let me know your thoughts and ideas with the hope we can begin in September as our winter friends return.

A separate path to make donation quilts suggested was a group of quilters participating in a round robin type quilt where they set the guidelines.

Update

Under my community service umbrella/hat in August I'm going to specify a block pattern, colors and size. Blocks collected will be made into a donation quilt. Hope you'll join in.

RGV Quilt Show

by Laural Powell and Joy Paugh

45th Annual Rio Grande Valley Quilt Show - Rhythm in Blues - A Sapphire Celebration

The framework for the yearly Rio Grande Valley Quilt Show, "Rhythm in Blues a Sapphire Celebration," is coming together for February 12-13, 2027, at the South Padre Island Convention Center.

We are extremely fortunate to have Laural Powell on the team, who has been diligently following her publicity timeline and keeping us moving in the right direction. Jani Shoemaker is also working alongside me as co-chair, laying the groundwork for the 2028 show. Jani's marketing and IT background has been invaluable to making our 2027 show a success.

Please take a look at the updated Quilt Show page on the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild website. While you are there, please register a quilt or two. As this is our 45th celebration, your participation is an integral part of our community. To thank you for your time and contribution, everyone who registers a quilt will receive a small token of appreciation.

The Theme Challenge and Quilt Challenge rules are now listed on the website under the Quilt Entry and Information section, as well as on our Facebook page.

Additionally, we have several updates and volunteer needs:

- Demos Chair Needed: I am looking for someone to chair the demonstrations committee. I have a list of topics and volunteers ready to present; I just need an organizer to lead the committee. Please call me if you are interested.

- Hotel Rooms: We are currently working with the Convention Center staff to secure reasonable hotel rates. Consider gathering a few friends to share a room and planning a weekend on the island to enjoy the show, take a class, and volunteer.

- Tote Raffle: Marilyn Henzs is looking for a minimum of 12 to 14 attractive, sturdy totes for each day of the show. The tote raffle is one of our main fundraisers.

- Boutique Donations: Carmen Garza is seeking donations for the boutique. Please fill out the survey of items included in this newsletter.

The profit from the quilt show allows our guild to host national speakers, fund fabric for military service projects, and give back through our educational outreach program. Thank you for your continued support in making the 2027 Quilt Show a success.

Opportunity Quilt Update - June 13, 2026

This year's Opportunity Quilt prizes are: 1st Place: 71" x 71" Blue Pickle Dish Quilt; 2nd Place: 24" x 35.5" Guitar Wall Hanging;

3rd Place: Big Katahdin Tote with 4 inside pockets and a zippered top made using the same fabrics as the Blue Pickle Dish quilt. Made by Joy Paugh.

Ticket envelopes contain 24 "Business Card size" blue entry tickets with a line for Name and a line for Phone Number be sure to write legibly, 2 each prize information business cards that can be used as a receipt if needed and 1 double sided prizes picture card.

Each guild member is politely asked to sell or purchase at least one envelope of tickets. Ticket prices are: $1 each; 6 for $5 or 24 tickets for $20. We accept cash, checks, and app payments using either Cash App or Zelle. Some guild members prefer to just donate $20 and not sell or purchase any tickets and some choose to pay $24/envelope because that's the value if each ticket was to be sold separately.

We currently have 254 paid members for 2026. At $20/envelope of 24 tickets, if each member sold or purchased one envelope, we would gross $254 \times $20 = $5,080$.

Please note monies are to be turned in when the tickets are turned in. Prepaid tickets can cause confusion and bookkeeping mistakes.**

Quilt Showing Schedule: By August Guild meeting I hope we will begin to assemble a calendar of dates and locations where the quilt will be displayed and tickets will be sold. I know Sam's in Harlingen is already in the works. If you know of a place where you think the quilt could be displayed safely and tickets sold, please contact (me) Kathy Stevens: 972-467-4269 or Joy Paugh 913-226-6781. I do not answer unknown numbers, so either text me or if you call, leave a message and I'll return your call asap.

The Totes and More headed up by Marilyn Hensz will look somewhat different. Marilyn has asked that individuals or even Bees donate a bag. The donors, whether they are a Bee, friends, or a single member, can choose to donate the bag only or fill the bag as well. The tote bag criteria: Approximately 17" Wide x 15" Tall x 6" deep. This is an average size. It can be larger or smaller; but keep it close to those dimensions. The tote also needs to be able to stand up on its own, therefore some stabilizer may be needed for the sides., As always, we want the totes to be very attractive so that guests will want to purchase raffle tickets to win their favorite bag.

2027 T-Shirts and drink Tumblers carry the logo that Laural designed for this show. The 32oz Tumblers are $25.00. Your name put on the back for an extra $5.00.

The Tshirts will be short sleeve V-neck and Crew necks, long sleeve Crew necks in white and blue. Small through Extra Large are $25.00 and 2X & 3X are $30.00.

There will be an option on the Guild Website under the Quilt Show page to purchase these two items. Orders processed will be available at the following Guild meeting.

Bee News

Fiber Arts Bee

We're a warm and lively community that gathers on the 2nd and 4th Monday of each month from 10 AM to noon at The Upper Valley Quilt Guild in Mission. Come join us and let your creativity shine in a fun and friendly atmosphere! We can't wait to see what amazing things you'll make! Don't miss out on the fun!

The Mission Bee gathers every 1st and 3rd Monday from 9 AM to 12 PM at the Upper Valley Art in Mission, where they passionately craft military quilts, stunning pieces for the Quilt Show, and heartwarming baby quilts destined for the Children's Hospital.

Queen City Bee

We are always very appreciative of your scrap donations that help us continue to help our community. We will continue working with the B-zzy Bee at the Weslaco Library. Plans are on the way to have our second 8 week class at the Weslaco Library for new participants during the months of June and July.

The QCB's also use your donations for making charity quilts. In 2025 a total of 98 quilts in various sizes and 37 grocery bags were donated. Starting this year, for the month of January 2026, we have already donated a total of 53 quilts in various sizes plus 11 quilted placemats. This certainly could not be possible without your scrap donations. Thank you for continuing to help us help others.

"Are you interested in the modern quilt movement?" Would you like to spend an afternoon with other quilters who are flexing their "Modern Muscles"? Debbie Williams, Ann Alexander and Nancy Tatro have formed a new group for that purpose.

We are meeting six times a year-January, March, May, July, September and November on the fourth Saturday of each month. Our next meeting will be on July 25, and will run from 1pm to 3pm in Room 1 at Fun N Sun RV park. The address is 1400 Zillock Road, San Benito. If you are coming to the meeting, please text Nancy at 603-867-6899 by the Thursday before. She will have a parking pass and name badge ready for you.

We're a gated community, so drive to the gate code box and enter code 8506. Nancy will "buzz" you in. Drive through the gate, go straight to the STOP sign and take a left (That-Away Lane), take the first right on Stanley Blvd and drive three short blocks until you come to a large metal building on your right (the Rec Center). Drive to the end of this building and park anywhere. Room 1 is located at the far end of this building. If you have questions, call Nancy at 603-867-6899.

RGVQG General Meeting Minutes

By Linda Damon

July 11, 2026

President Kathe Letulle called the meeting to order at 9:32 am. This month's program is Quilts-N-A-Flash 911 for Quilters by Cheryl Matzen. Cheryl demonstrated her Half-Square Triangle System which will be available for purchase at the RGV Quilt Show February 12-13, 2027.

Heather Nelson was installed as 3rd Vice President responsible for programs. Linda Damon was installed as Secretary.

Kathe Letulle made several announcements: she requested care and concern for Carrah Maney whose husband died recently.

The August Guild meeting date has changed to August 15 due to a facilities use conflict.

Please make the change in your calendars.

The donated treadle sewing machine and wall mounted quilt rack are for sale at the meeting. If they are not purchased before February they will be donated to the Quilt Show Silent Auction.

For safety reasons, the rail-less stairs in the center of the stage will no longer be used and cord covers will be installed as a precaution.

Sue Worrell made a motion to clarify that the $15 membership fee for July-December is for new members only. Lynn Johnson seconded the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

Membership: Currently there are 243 members; 54 members attended the July general meeting. There were 3 guests and four members on zoom.

Community and Military Service: 19 dog beds were donated to the shelter, 5 military service quilts were donated to service members, and 24 quilts were also donated for a total value of $8,323. Pharr South will host a military service sew day on August 8, 9am-3pm. Kits are available.

Nominating: Several positions are open. Please consider volunteering. The Guild Publicity Committee Chair will be open. Joy Paugh will focus on her position as Quilt Show Chair. The Historian position will open in December. Mike Hall as Treasurer is term limited in December. He would like to mentor the next Treasurer beginning soon. In December Debbie Williams will succeed Dale Shafer as Schoolhouse Chair. Schoolhouse: The Christmas in July class by Dale Shafer is scheduled for July 16, beginning at 9:00am. Pictures of the projects and a supply list are available at rgvqq.com, click on Schoolhouse. Dale Shafer will have fabric for the tree project.

Tangible Assets: Mike Hall reported that from the Cindy Young stash donation, 150 yards is available for military service quilts and 250+ yards are available for guild member activities. The form to request fabric for guild use is online..

Quilt Show merchandise: Tee shirts and tumblers can be purchased online and picked up at guild meetings.

Quilt Show: Joy Paugh reiterated that the goals of the show are to celebrate the art of quilting and increase fundraising for guild activities. A new sponsorship category titled Artist Sponsor - Masterpiece is a $3,500 award by the SPI Convention Center. The Art Incubator South Padre Island will host a mixer Friday February 12 prior to the Quilt Show. All volunteers and members of the public are invited. Carly Mul will also be in attendance.

Please make items for the Boutique. A form for donating items is available online. A survey to identify items that might sell well will be in this newsletter and on Facebook.

The Totes-n-More goal is to auction 10-12 totes per day. Please consider donating a tote as an individual or as a group. Or you can donate items to complete a tote.

Sign-ups for volunteering at the Quilt Show will begin at the September meeting.

Descriptions of the 2027 Quilt Challenge Fidget Quilt and the 2027 Theme Challenge quilts are online.

Ticket sales for the Opportunity Quilt total $184.

BeeKeepers are encouraged to invite Joy Paugh to visit meetings.

Webmaster: On Facebook, the RGVQG page is for members only. The RGVQG Texas page lists meetings, classes, events, and other quilt guild activities and is open to everyone. Members are encouraged to visit the Facebook pages and to share posts to increase engagement with a wider audience.

Cactus Flower Interiors purchased a quilt show sponsorship. They will participate in the Art Fest (July 24-25) sponsored by the Art Business Incubator SPI. Please plan to attend and show support for a Quilt Show sponsor. Wear your guild nametag or tee shirt to show support for the Quilt Show and the sponsor.

The meeting adjourned at 11:51am.

The Legacy of Nifty Fifty Quilters Continues

By Teresa Drummond

May, 18, 2026

In 1995, I casually flipped through a quilting magazine looking for inspiration and stumbled across a small ad for a one-on-one United States quilt block exchange. That tiny ad sparked an idea much bigger than I ever imagined — a centralized quilt exchange where every participant would receive a quilt block from all fifty states, not just from the organizer. What began as a dream quickly grew into organizing fifty quilters to complete a total of 2,500 quilt blocks.

At the time, none of us realized that we were creating something far more meaningful than quilts. We were building friendships, sharing our life stories, and stitching together a community that would span the entire country.

The early days were not always easy. After receiving a discouraging letter from one participant, I nearly gave up on the project entirely. Thankfully, my friend Wendy Smith stepped in beside me, and together we began mailing letters to quilt guilds across the country seeking participants. As the Internet slowly emerged into everyday life, Wendy began posting notices on quilting bulletin boards online, and little by little we filled all fifty states.

Participants shared history forms explaining their blocks and the meaning behind them. Fabric samples were mailed to ensure colors would coordinate. Soon the project became much more than a block exchange. The stories, creativity, and compassion of the quilters transformed it into a nationwide friendship quilt.

One of the most touching moments came when my son Sean used the signature blocks from the exchange for a fifth-grade project. Quilters added charms, buttons, appliqué, and heartfelt messages to their blocks. Sean thanked participants by mailing fossilized shark teeth from his Potomac River collection, and one quilter even sewed a special pocket into her quilt to hold his gift.

Over the next several years, the Nifty Fifty Quilters continued to grow far beyond that original exchange. What started with one group eventually expanded into thirty completed quilt swaps, including themes like, southwestern, patriotic, Civil War, 9/11 memorial, state flowers and many others that connected quilters across the United States through shared creativity and storytelling.

Our Twenty Plenty International Quilt Exchange was created after the first few Nifty Fifty quilt swaps were completed. What began as a national friendship quilt project soon expanded across the world, bringing together quilters from over forty countries through a shared love of quilting and cultural connection. Participants exchanged quilt blocks representing countries from North/South America, Europe, Asia, Australia, and Africa. Like the Nifty Fifty groups, Twenty Plenty became much more than a quilt exchange. It formed lasting friendships between women from different backgrounds and cultures who may never have otherwise crossed paths.

The exchanges also supported charitable causes. Participants created additional quilts for breast cancer fundraising efforts and quilt museums. We hosted gatherings in Stafford, Virginia, where quilters from across the country came together to sort blocks, sew quilts, laugh, and form friendships that lasted long after the final stitches were sewn. Our Nifty Fifty 1 breast cancer quilt had collected signatures from across the country of those affected by breast cancer. It was donated to the Michigan State University Museum. The quilt was featured in the book Quilts and Health by Marsha MacDowell, Clare Luz and Beth Donaldson.

Some participants faced difficult life events during the exchanges — illnesses, divorces, job changes, and even the loss of beloved members. Yet the quilting community always rallied around one another. One guild completed blocks for a member who passed away during the exchange, reminding all of us of what quilting has always represented: compassion, connection, and shared kindness.

One of the most meaningful stories to come from our quilting community was Brenda's Wish Quilt. Brenda Neily, a breast cancer survivor from Massachusetts, became deeply involved in our Nifty Fifty and Twenty Plenty swaps after attending one of our quilting gatherings in Virginia. Inspired by the friendships and spirit of the groups, she went on to host several NF swaps while also helping organize breast cancer charity quilts. Sadly, Brenda's cancer returned during this time, yet she continued working tirelessly on the quilting groups for as long as she could. Before she passed away in 2000, Brenda began planning a surprise friendship quilt for me using a beautiful Hoffman fabric she had carefully chosen because she knew it was my favorite. After her passing, Marjorie Young and many Nifty Fifty quilters from across the country completed Brenda's vision by creating blocks and sewing the quilt together. The finished quilt became far more than fabric and thread for me— it became a lasting symbol of friendship, love, generosity, and the deep bonds formed through our quilting community. Brenda's story continues to remind us that quilts often carry the hearts and memories of the people who create them.

Then life moved forward. Families grew, careers changed, and eventually the groups went quiet. After thirty completed swaps, Nifty Fifty Quilters took a fifteen-year pause.

But quilting friendships never truly disappear. Nifty Fifty Quilters is beginning a new chapter. We have relaunched our quilting community with a brand-new website: Nifty Fifty Quilting at www.niftyfiftyquilting.com

The website showcases the history of our exchanges along with more than 70,000 quilt block photos created throughout our many swaps over the years. Our goal is to build a strong quilting community by connecting quilters through online chat rooms, shared projects, and new creative tools. The new site also includes software that allows quilters to visually design their quilt blocks and entire quilts online by uploading their own fabric samples, experimenting with sashing and borders, adjusting colors, and resizing quilt layouts. It combines the tradition of quilting friendships with modern technology to inspire creativity and connection for quilters around the world.

Even more meaningful, we are beginning Nifty Fifty 31 — A Healing Quilt Swap.

This new exchange represents healing, friendship, encouragement, and renewal through quilting. Much like the original swaps, the goal is not simply to exchange blocks, but to create connections and support one another through creativity and kindness. Quilts have always told stories, comforted hearts, and carried love through every stitch. NF 31 continues that tradition. Our swap will be creating three charity quilts to raise awareness for: Breast Cancer, Suicide Prevention and Domestic Violence.

Looking back over the journey from that first 50-state exchange in 1995 to today, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for every quilter who helped make Nifty Fifty Quilters what it became. Thousands of blocks were exchanged, countless friendships were formed, and together we created a quilting legacy stitched together with generosity, laughter, resilience, and heart.

As we begin again with NF 31, we welcome both returning members and new quilters to join us in continuing this beautiful tradition. Because quilting has never only been about fabric and thread. It has always been about the people behind the stitches.
