

Lori Dickman's Bio:

Lori Dickman has been sewing for over 45 years and quilting for over 30 years. She teaches numerous quilting and sewing classes. After spending 15 years concentrating in the art of garment sewing, her 'quilting journey' began in 1988 when she created her first quilt. She is passionate about working with fabric and color, as well as teaching others to join in on this quilter's love affair. The art of "Making" has been a wonderful journey for her!

Lori is an educator, an author, and a pattern designer. She has numerous books and patterns available on her website. Her very popular "Speedy Solutions" books offer step-by-step techniques and patterns to turn your scrap stash into fantastic quilts!

Her lectures can be found on the 2021 Great Wisconsin Virtual Quilt Show (Presentation Schedule | The Great Wisconsin Quilt Show 2020) and she can be found in the Teacher's Director on the following websites: Quilter's Calendar website (<https://www.quilters-calendar.com/lori-dickman/>); and on the Global Quilt Connection website: (<https://www.globalquiltconnection.com/teacherdirectory.html>)

Lori's quilts and garments have won numerous awards in various contests around the country. Recently, three of Lori's quilts have been traveling in Exhibits:

[1] Lori's art quilt, "Owl Sit Under the Light of the Oak Leaf Moon" was a finalist in the yearly National Quilt Museum contest, "New Quilt from an Old Favorite." Lori's quilt hung in that Exhibit at the National Quilt Museum from April through June of 2019 and has been traveling with the Exhibit around the country until December of 2020.

[2] Lori's art quilt: Bouquet of Flowers for Mom! was accepted into the Great Wisconsin Quilt Show Botanical Exhibit. Her quilt will be traveling with that exhibit until September of 2022.

[3] Lori's art quilt: Tangled Stars was accepted into the 2021 Great Wisconsin Quilt Show Art Deco Exhibit, Madison, Wisconsin. It will travel with that Exhibit until September of 2023.

Lori's desire is for others to learn to love the art of quilt-making as much as she does! Join in on the passion and fun of creating!
