President's Threads That Bind

What an inspiring program from our speaker, Betty Chouinard. I haven't seen the members so excited about a technique for a long time.

The hot part of the summer is upon us, at least in Texas, so it's a good time to stay inside and sew. Our next speaker, Pat Cooper, will do a trunk show, but you may never look at "fibers" the same way afterward. She is a very creative lady.

As the days roll by, Veteran's Day is coming closer. I hope we start to see red, white and blue quilts at Show and Tell. And 2026 is the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Somehow, I think red, white and blue may start to appear often in our Show and Tell. I hope so.

We are still in need of a chair for the Military Service Quilts, a lower valley Beekeeper and a person or persons to organize Friendship Day. I will be happy to share what is and what is NOT expected in those positions. And just because "We've always done it that way!" is heard, the only constant thing in life is change.

Enjoy your summer and travel safely to and from wherever you go. See you again soon! Keep on stitchin'!

Sunshine and Shadows

by Jackie Landon/Kathe Letulle

There have been many of our members who have needed our concern and prayers. We sincerely hope that these members know that their Family at the Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild are concerned and praying for them.

If you know of those in the Guild who need a card of encouragement, get well card, sympathy card, please send the person's name and a general statement to sunshine@rgvqg.com

Most current cards to our sisters are the following:
Florea Flores' brother died in July.
Bev Widdows had knee surgery.

Schoolhouse Classes

by Dale Shafer and Nancy Malmin

October 17 - Vicki Guerra

November 14 - Erica Barron
3D Teacup & Saucer

December 19 - Diana Wolf
Featherweight Spa Day

January 16 - Joy Paugh
Fun Faces! (raw-edge applique)

February 6 - Cassino Richardson
Quilting Tips, Shortcuts & Techniques

March 6 - Suzanne Brennan
Pockets A Plenty tote bag

Schoolhouse Classes are all set up for this season, and we have six, rather than the usual five - just so many great things to learn! Most of the classes will be held on the Thursday following the Guild meeting; however, in February and March, due to conflicts with the Quilt Show and Retreat, the classes will be held on the Thursday before the Guild meeting.

All classes are held from 9 - 3, at Pharr South, 1402 S. Cage, in their spacious sewing room. You may bring your lunch or go out to one of the nearby fast-food restaurants.

Sign up for the classes is ready now, along with pictures and supply lists (Thank You, Bonnie!). You may also see the class samples at the Guild meetings. Some of the classes will require pre-class work.

Questions? Please feel free to call or text me. Dale Shafer and Nancy Malmin, Co-chairs for Schoolhouse Classes.

Membership Information

by Debbie Williams

As of the AUG Guild meeting, we had a total of 234 members This is down slightly from the 240 total members that we had in 2023.

Your membership dues are one of the largest income generators for the guild each year. For the 2024 calendar year we ended with a total of 233 members. This is very similar to where we ended for 2023. Beginning October 1st, I will start excepting the membership dues for 2025. Officially your dues are good from January 1st through the end of December, but if you want to be proactive...you can certainly pay early.

Membership Contest:

How would you like to earn a free Program Class for next year? This has a value of $45 and provides you with the opportunity to learn new quilting skills and enjoy a day with your friends! More details will follow in the next couple of months, but here are a few of the basics:

* From October 1st thru the end of February, 2025, you can earn one credit for each new member that you get to join the guild. The guild member generating the most new members during this time frame will be declared the winner.

* You will need to be a paid member yourself in order to participate.

* Qualifying "new members" can either be individuals that have never previously been a guild member OR individuals who were not a member in 2024, but have previously been a member.

The online form will be revised to include a field for the referring member to fill in with their name to get credit. It will be the responsibility of the referring member to make sure that their name is on the forms of all qualifying new members.

So start thinking now about who you would like to invite to join you in the RGV quilt guild benefits. This is the perfect place to strengthen your quilting skills and meet new friends.

Please email Debbie Williams at membership@Rgvqg.com if you have questions or need assistance.

Military Service Quilts

There are bundled quilts ready to be quilted. Please consider helping out this way. Two Sew Days have been scheduled in January; watch for more information!

Also Lucy Klaas will be stepping down at the end of the year. It's very rewarding and we hope someone will be willing to take over. Think and pray on it, if you think you might be interested.

In Memoriam

We were able to create a digital slide show for the 2024 Quilt Show that allowed us to honor the members who are no longer with us. Please notify Bonnie Hall when you are aware of someone who has passed. She keeps a file of names and obituaries, but she is not always aware of a death. It does not matter if the person has returned up-North or hasn't been a member recently, we want to remember them. Each of you are the key to make sure no one is left out.

Give with Bing

Another way to support RIO GRANDE VALLEY QUILT GUILD is through Give with Bing. Microsoft Rewards lets you support RIO GRANDE VALLEY QUILT GUILD through its Give with Bing program. After signing up and selecting our organization, you can earn rewards points just for searching the web with Bing. Microsoft then turns those points into cash donations to us.

The program is free--you just need to sign up with a Microsoft account. As of May 2021, Microsoft Rewards has donated more than [$6.5 million] to nonprofits around the world.

Join now RIO GRANDE VALLEY QUILT GUILD (Give with Bing)

<http://www.bing.com/give>

Microsoft Edge uses Bing. You can also get the Bing app for iPad, iPhone and Android. Please call Bonnie, 740-398-1629, if you need help setting up Give with Bing.

Social Media Expansion

by Laural Powell

We have expanded our social media presence! For some time the Guild has had a closed Facebook group, as Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild. This means you must answer some questions and then be allowed into this group.

The Guild Board has voted to keep this group to members only. This is to provide a space for our members to post and comment where they will know it will only be seen by Guild members.

The Guild Board also understands some may want to share what our guild is doing with their friends. Then others are introduced to our guild through our quilt show and/or community service efforts, and want to know more about our guild. So, we created a Facebook page at Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild Texas. This page can be viewed and followed by anyone interested in our guild. Additionally, we have reactivated the Guild's Instagram account, which anyone can follow at Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild or @rgvqgtx.

So, now anyone can follow the Guild on our Facebook page and Instagram account, while Guild members can have privacy by joining the Guild's closed Facebook group. If you need help accessing any of these, contact me at joinfb@rgvqg.com.

Community Service

by Chris Cowan

It's great to be part of such a generous group! Unfortunately no one has submitted anything this month. Remember you can report online or print a donation form to bring to a meeting and/or mail it to me.

We need to update the online site. Please go to the locations by city and see if we need to remove or add locations. Let us know so we can get it up to date. It would be greatly appreciated!

2025 RETREAT DATES

Friendship Star - March 10 - 14, 2025

Bluebonnet Friends - March 16 - 20, 2025

At the June Guild Meeting, we had two more Wait-List Sign ups. As we all know, Life Happen and everyone has a chance to go to retreat at one time or another. If you have any idea about attending retreat - just text, phone or email to get your name on the wait list.

The Retreat Shirts (golf style with collar) are available to pre-order at $30 each and must be pre-paid. Red for Friendship Star and Royal Blue for Bluebonnet. If you wish to order a Retreat shirt, either e-mail or text message with your size, then mail a check made out to me - Kathe Letulle. The first order will go in October 1, 2024, so the shirts can be ordered in bulk and they will be delivered once they are embroidered. The next order date will be January 1, 2025 and delivery will be at retreat (or maybe sooner). All attendees are asked to wear a red or blue shirt one day during the appropriate retreat. It is nice to see that one color for the day.

Have a very blessed day!

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Blessings,
Kathe Letulle

RGV Quilt Show

By Renee Darkis

2025

Looking for new quilts from old things. That's the idea behind the new recycled/upcycled category. It's an opportunity to share those quilts that just can't compete with that brand new thousand pieces quilt that is in the same category.

I also hope that you will consider making a jacket out of recycled things. That would be beautiful. I have seen so many ideas on pinterest lately. I saw a vest of doilies that was gorgeous!

The guidelines are on the website. Please check them out.

Remember we need your quilt to make our show shine.

Opportunity quilt ticket sales

Sales are going well. As you may have seen there is a great picture of the quilt on Facebook and on the website. As of this newsletter we have sold $765 in tickets and $20 in donations. Sell, sell, sell. This is one of the main fundraisers and we need everyone to participate. If each member sells 4 books of ticket we will meet our goal!

Have fun quilting.

Renee

Allison Rainboth will return as our appraiser for the 2025 show. She is looking forward to working with us for this show as she was unable to come last year! Read the article on page 9 written by Debi Warner for Quilt Hub before her passing. It clearly lays out the reasons for having a quilt appraised!

Challenges

This year as in the past there are two challenges that are begging for your ideas. Let's put on those thinking caps and get started. Have fun creating! I can hardly wait to see what you make.

2025 Chair's Choice

Chairs Choice will require an element of the Mexican culture in the Valley. This could represent colors, designs or holidays. Any size as long as it does not exceed the maximum perimeter of 480 inches.

On the entry form Please include an explanation of what inspired you and the origin of the quilt.

2025 Challenge

2025 Challenge

The challenge is to create a fiber piece that showcases the diversity of Texas.

This must be an original piece and should not include any breakable embellishments. The size is limited to a maximum of 72" perimeter. If it's a circle or odd shape the diameter shouldn't exceed 18".

Can't wait to see everyone's imagination for this one, have fun!!

Boutique News

By Carmen Avila

The ladies at the Queen City Bee have been fabulous. I was out for 3 weeks with some personal health issues and on my return, they surprised me with the awesome items they have been working on for the Boutique. I am truly blessed to be a member of this bee. I don't have words to express my appreciation for their contribution.

I had an opportunity to look through last year's unsold items packed away in a tote. As a suggestion, we need to be mindful, creative and selective as to the items we have for this year. I will share from the Nov '23 newsletter the list of items that did NOT SELL: Plain table runners, wine glass cozies, tissue box covers, eye glass holders, long stockings, casserole carriers and football team labeled fabric aprons (too many of the same team),

Now for the list of items that sold well: Greeting cards, Earrings made of quilted shapes, Pin cushions, Lap quilts, pillowcases, decorated aprons, potholders, small wall hangings, small children stuffed animals or teddy bears.

I have received the following from various donors, a container with very nice cactus pin cushions, teddy bears, and tote bags. Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! We are off to a good start, but we should not procrastinate because Feb 14 is not too far from now.

I have several ladies volunteering to help with the show and will need several more so that we have good coverage at all times of the show. I still don't have the "pledge form" but in the meantime, please contact me via email: mcavila27@gmail.com with your pledge and/or commitment. Also, I will be at the meetings to receive items you may have completed.

Remember, written pledges/commitments will solidify the offer and will help me to know who will be doing what. I do much better when I have something written to help me remember.

Please keep these points in mind as you consider item donations

- please be mindful of the quality of your donations
- ensure that items are clean and free of offensive orders
- price the items

Bee News

Hey there! I'm so happy to share some fantastic news with you! At Fiber Arts Unlimited, we're celebrating individual artists and providing a supportive space for learning and showing off their excellent work. Our group is where we improve our craft, have great conversations, and find inspiration. Whether you dream of becoming a fiber artist or just love the craft, we'd love for you to join us and let your creativity soar with fibers! It's not just about the final piece but the whole journey—from creating and discovering new materials to expressing yourself through fiber art. If you enjoy hands-on work and love a good challenge, we'd be thrilled to have you with us at Fiber Arts Unlimited. We usually meet every 2nd and 4th Monday at the Upper Valley Art League from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm. You can join us in person or on Zoom at 921 E 12th St, Mission, TX. For more information, contact Pat Cooper at 830-391-1465 or pcpatlcooper@gmail.com.

Thanks a bunch!

Queen City Bee

By Josie McVey

It is known that a single bee will create about 0.8g of honey during her lifetime. Let me tell you all, each one of the bees at QC Bee is creating enough honey to spread throughout. Their enthusiasm continues to rise with each challenge.

A member is out for a few weeks and returns to find beautiful items quilted, sewn, and put together for gifting to its community, family, and friends. The scissors cut precision shapes for blocks to be sewn, the humming of the thread as it flows through its path of creation, the mindful layering in preparation for the decorative quilting stitch and finally, the thread puts down its binding and Wala, a new piece of beautiful creation is presented.

The bee has had a day class on how to make teddy bears and another on how to make bags. We will continue to have classes for new members and for those who did not have an opportunity to be present. The ladies are learning to make pillowcases, baby blankets, teddy bears, large and small totes. Many of these items will be donated to the Boutique/Guild Show. We share information, fabric, and the how-to's. Nothing too large or impossible when we come together. Honey is being created!

The Queen City Bee excitement and camaraderie is felt at the Haswell and word is getting out. We highly encourage and expect that each new member become a RGVQG member because of the many blessings we have received from the guild.

Programs

By Josie McVey

On Saturday, September 14, 2024 we are looking forward to having Pat Cooper present a lecture on "Quilts and Art Quilts, a Continuum." Fiber Arts Unlimited is more than just a quilt group. Alternate methods of design like painting, dyeing, weaving, felting and Kumihimo (Japanese braiding) are used in making art quilts. For this lecture the talk will focus on some of our "Art" quilts that use a variety of techniques and fibers.

On Friday, October 11, 2024 we look forward to having Joyce Teng deliver a class, Dreamy Flower Field: Fabric Inking. We will learn to create wildly colorful flower fields on white fabric and inspire the artist within. Participants will learn six techniques to create a colorful harmony using Tsukineko Inks. This will be a hands-on experience. The fee for the kit is $30.00.

On Saturday, October 12, 2024 Joyce Teng will provide a lecture presentation on "Create Enchantive Fabric with Washable Tsukineko Inks."

On Saturday, November 9, 2024 we look forward to having Dr. Lisa Irby provide a Color Theory Lecture: Color Splash—May I Complement You? Dr. Irby's aim through this presentation is to heighten our love of color and embolden us to take a dare and explore the full spectrum of the beauty of color. To stretch our imagination about what works well and see what else might work, also.

On Friday, December 13, 2024 we have Betty Chouinard teaching a class on a Mini Plaid-ish Quilt (scrappy).

On Saturday, December 14, 2024 we will have a zoom lecture presentation by Emily Bailey with Aunt Em's Quilts on "Discover the Possibilities Hidden in Your Scraps."

On Friday, January 10, 2025 we will have Sue Heinz provide a workshop on "Caffeinated Quilting." This workshop is based on her latest book by the same title. Sue Heinz is the owner of Kismet Quilting LLC, and the author of two Drawn to Mastery series workbooks, Fill Harmonics, Elemental Designs. She has also developed a range of innovative and easy-to-use marking tools and quilting rulers.

On Saturday, January 11, 2025 Sue Heinz will have a lecture presentation on "You've Got a Friend Named Elmer."

On Saturday, March 8, 2025 we look forward to having the RUMMAGE SALE at Casa del Sol in Donna, chaired by Nancy Malmin. Let's come together and assist Nancy with organizing, setting up, and gathering items that will become someone else's treasures.

On April 11 & 12, 2025 we will have a class and lecture presentation by an upcoming Guild member, Erica Barron, she is full of Energy, Enthusiasm, and Excited to share her talent. Final arrangements pending.

We have pending contracts for May, June, August, and November for 2025.

Months available February, July, September, October and December for 2025. We do have some leads that we are working on, but welcome suggestions for lecture presentations and classes.

Please go on our Guild website, rgvqq.com, and read up on the presenters/instructors and support our Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild. We guarantee that attending with an open mind you will learn at least one thing, but more important than that is coming together with our "Quilting Family," gathering with those who share the same passion and willing to help us learn.

Day 1 Bags

Great news from Alyssa Gonzalez, our District co-ordinator, we exceeded the 15 quilts promised!! She received 24 quilts. If you have one started, you are ahead of the game for next year 2025. You can contact her, text (best) or call her cell phone at (956) 578-3352 or via email agonzalez@nplexusrgv.com.

RGVQG General Meeting

Minutes

RIO GRANDE VALLEY QUILT GUILD

August 10, 2024

Diana Wolf called our meeting to order. Josie McVey introduced Betty Chouinard, our speaker for the morning. She gave us a great program called "How did you make that?"

Old Business:

The treasurer's report - Mike Hall - report will be placed on file for audit.

The secretary's report - Lila Helm - report will be filed as printed.

Membership - Debbie Williams - 47 members present, 13 members present on Zoom and 2 guests present. October 1st membership tickets for 2025 will be for sale. There will be a contest to see who gets the most new members for next year. The prize is a gift certificate for a program class.

Community Service - Chris Cowan is still having a problem getting the forms filled out and turned in.

Newsletter - Chris Cowan - Articles need to be in as soon as possible.

Programs - Josy McVey - Josy has several great programs lined up for the upcoming season. They are all listed in the newsletter.

President - Diana Wolf - Diana announced a change of venue for September and October. November and December will be at the Church of the Nazarene. Diana is also looking for a volunteer to organize Friendship Day.

Renee Darkis wants everyone to know that the Opportunity Quilt Ticket sales are up to $795 on the thermometer.

Committee Reports:

Fat Quarter Draw - Carrah Maney and Melissa Bradley - They took in $69 today and received a $25 donation. Melissa is absent so Sandy Bagett filled in for her.

Historian - Donna Otto - Donna has some of the documents at her house and has been enjoying reading through them.

Youth Quilting - Florea Flores - Florea Said the kids have completed projects and they have some registered in the quilt show.

Quilt Show - Renee Darkis - Renee said they are adding another category to the quilt show.

Upcycled/recycled is the new category. She brought a sample of one she had made. It is amazing.

Military Service Quilts - Diana brought some wheelchair quilts in to be quilted.

Schoolhouse - Dale Shafer - Dale has the classes all scheduled. Check the newsletter.

Retreats - Kathe Letulle - Kathe stated that the retreats are full, and each one has a waiting list. She wants anyone who has a name tag from a previous retreat to please bring them with you so they can be used again.

Webmaster - Bonnie Hall - Bonnie is trying to set up mass texting so she can notify everyone of current news. She is asking everyone to tell her if they know of anyone that has passed away so she can include them in the memorial at the quilt show.

Debra Warner(This is an article written by Debi for Quilting Hub!)

Should I Have My Quilt Appraised?

Written appraisals are required if you are going to send your quilt to an on-the-road quilt show or one of the major national shows but for the average quilter, what is the value of a quilt appraisal?

Witten appraisals are required if you are going to send your quilt to an on-the-road quilt show or one of the major national shows but for the average quilter, what is the value of a quilt appraisal?

Should I Have My Quilt appraised?

"If you don't have a written appraisal and something happens to the quilt, your insurance will only give you the cost of a blanket from a big box store." We've all heard this statement when planning for a quilt show that will offer the services of a certified appraiser. Generally, this is true.

But my first experience with a quilt appraiser was so much more! The appraiser asked so many good questions about my quilt. It really made me think that I should probably be recording some of this information even if I don't plan to have a certain quilt appraised. For example, she asked what batting was used in the quilt. Over time, this would be helpful to know.

She also asked about the origin of the fabric and KNEW when I wasn't complete in my answer. She told me that some of the fabric was older than what I had purchased. Oh yeah, some of it came from my mother's stash. I forgot about that.

Here are some things that you might not know about appraisals that might be helpful to you.

There are standards that quilt appraisers follow. Quilt appraisers are well educated and are certified by professional organizations. If you are curious, you can research this information. Be aware that a retail associate at an antique store is probably not certified. Also, if the person offers to purchase the quilt, you most likely aren't dealing with a certified appraiser as this violates their ethics.

The appraiser will need to see the quilt in person. A photograph will not tell the appraiser enough about the fabric and the workmanship. There is more than one way to appraise a quilt. Just as in real estate, some are valued at the fair market price. That means the value assigned is the same as that for which a similar quilt has sold. This method means that you may be able to purchase a similar item for the specified amount.

The comparable quilts would be similar in pattern and fabric. These quilts may not appraise for as much as the owner might wish, but certainly more than a big box store blanket.

Fair market value is the only method available for vintage and antique quilts.

Another method is reconstruction of a similar quilt. This method might be used when a quilt is unique in idea, construction, etc. These quilts generally have no market equivalent and might appraise at a higher value than expected. Labor-intensive design elements used in reconstruction would increase the replacement price.

Due to the above, an appraisal should be done every three to five years. Let's face it, times change.

A history of quilt sales by a quilter would also be taken into consideration. Sales receipts for such sales should be given to the appraiser.

A complete description of the quilt, including photographs, measurements, and the appraiser's workmanship comments are included with the appraisal.

Today's Internet feed contained a photo of a quilt recovered after the tornadoes in Tennessee.

Luckily, the quilt was in pristine condition. The finders are trying to return the quilt to the rightful owner. An appraisal document would most certainly establish the ownership of such a treasure.

Asking the question, "Should you have your quilt appraised?" The answer is:

What if your children found your great grandmother's quilt carefully stored in your attic? Would they value it? Would they treat it differently if a certified appraisal statement was packed with it? I think we know the answer is, "Yes!"
