

Rio Grande Valley Quilt Guild Board Meeting – November 9th, 2016.

Carla Mewhinney, President called the meeting to order at 1:03 pm.

Programs – Jan McCoy informed the Board that Sue Nichols has had to cancel her classes and presentation this month due to a family illness. Please check the web site for our guests in the coming months. Judy Brown advised that she had spoken with several potential Instructors/speakers over the summer and at the Houston Quilt Show. We (the guild) still need volunteers to assist with Instructors from out of town.

Schoolhouse - check the web for classes.

Treasurer: Karon Jacobson reports that we have $6,205.70 in the checking account.

Sunshine & Shadows: Nila Layman is ill; Alie Hiles has had to leave the area to give support to her son's family while he is in the Military overseas.

Military Service: Deb Blackburn reports that 25 quilts were given out at STC yesterday and two more will be given out at Alamo Country Club today. There will be a Veteran expo at STC on the 18th. Please remember to nominate someone for a quilt.(form on web site).

Quilt Show: Karon Jacobson reports that there will be box lunches available for those working during set-up for the show. Also, we will show our quilt at Market Days on SPI in December. Volunteers needed. She also reminded us that we need to register our quilts early..

Elections of Officers will be held at Saturday's meeting (November 12, 2016).

A discussion was held regarding the Retreat Chairperson have their own account , separate from the guild account. No decision made.

Library: Vicki Guerra reports she has several new books and will bring to general meeting on Saturday. Several old books were donated to the Salvation Army and a receipt given to K. Jacobson, Treasurer.

A discussion was held regarding developing a form for members to advise us of what they would like to see ie; classes, interest etc.

The Board was advised that STC has sent a letter to discontinue our meetings at the school at the end of this year. Karon Jacobson is looking for future location.

Respectfully submitted by J. Swanda, Secretary
