

RGVQG BOARD MEETING

May 10, 2023

Present: Lila Helm, Bonnie Hall, Jan Rondeau, Laurie Magee, Marsha Santow, Dale Shafer, Jackie Landon, Kathe Letulle, Marty Morrison, Jean Waufle, Debbie Williams, Chris Cowan, Josie McVey

The meeting was called to order at 9:32am by our president, Marsha Santow

The secretary's report will be filed as printed.

The treasurer's report will be placed on file for audit.

Membership -Debbie Williams – We have one new member which brings our total to 231. Debbie stated that Casa de Valle in Alamo has contacted her about a place to have our meetings. She will call them for more information.

Quilt Show – Laurie Magee – The opportunity quilt will be ready to display at our meeting on Saturday. She has the proposal from the SPI Convention Center. She has opportunity tickets bundled. Things are moving along. The date changed to the third Friday and Saturday in February. She still needs someone to chair the Imagination Station. She has already received some finished Totes and More!

Programs – Jan Rondeau – Nothing has changed. Everything is set for May. June is Rhonda Pierce from Schmidt Needles; Suzie Parron will be back in July with her Barn Quilts presentation. She is still looking for national speakers that you would like to hear to let her know.

BOM – Chris Cowan – She is checking on a block for May. She is waiting to see if we have any more participants to decide on whether to continue or not.

Community Service – Chris Cowan – 23 quilts donated to the foster kids that are seniors and 19 stuffed toys for 728 hours at a value of $5,278.

Newsletter – Chris Cowan – Articles due on Monday

Fat Quarter Draw – Absent

Retreat – Kathe Letulle – Both retreats are full and have a waiting list.

Schoolhouse – Dale Shafer says she has some classes set up. The first one, Binding techniques, taught by Bonnie Hall and Kris Driscoll. November will be a Christmas table runner. More classes will be lined up.

Sunshine and Shadows – Jackie Landon said she sent out 3 cards and will be sending one to Doris Anderson. Sent one to Pam Manly, Sharon Crosswhite has a broken arm. Cindy Ellis on the death of her husband.

New Business:

Bonnie Hall has been contacted about basic sewing skills for children. She has passed the information onto Florea Flores and Concho. Josie McVey is also willing to include them in her classes. Bonnie also asked if we could send a card to Suebee and Rick Redd to say we are missing them...

Meeting adjourned at 10:30am...